Panther Valley Ecumenical Church Hosts Choir

Panther Valley Ecumenical Church will be hosting the church choir from the Immaculate Conception Church in Franklin on Sunday, January 28th. The twenty member choir, under the direction of Roseanne Huttman, will join the PVEC congregation in celebrating its Sunday worship service beginning at 10 a.m. Visitors are welcome to come and share in this ecumenical experience.

The Immaculate Conception Church is the second oldest Roman Catholic parish in Sussex County. Founded in the mid-nineteenth century, the parish served the families of immigrants who settled to work in the mineral mines which at the time were the largest source of employment in Franklin and the nearby towns of Hamburg and Ogdensburg. The current church building, located at 75 Church Street, is more than 100 years old and is reminiscent of the quaint but beautiful chapels found in the small towns of Europe.
