Officials from the four founding denominations of Panther Valley Ecumenical Church met with leaders of the congregation on Monday, June 20, 2005.

Leaders present were the Rev. Bill Saun, executive presbyter of the Presbyterian Church, USA; the Rev. Galen Goodwin, district superintendent of the Skylands District of the United Methodist Church; the Rev. Sherry Taylor, minister of the New Jersey Association of the United Church of Christ; and Canon Carter Echols of The Episcopal Church. They were joined by the Rev. Dr. Mary Louise Howson, pastor of the church, Glenn Stevenson, the chair of church council, and other leaders.

Their discussion included developing new pathways of mutual ministry.
